

General Conditions of Purchase of
FLABEG France S.A.S.
Sarrewerden

Version: August 2017

I. General Provisions, Scope

1. Our General Conditions of Purchase below shall apply exclusively for all deliveries and services to us. Other provisions, in particular the supplier's general terms and conditions, shall not apply, irrespective of whether or not such general terms and conditions have been expressly rejected by us. Our General Conditions of Purchase shall also apply exclusively if we, having knowledge of other general terms and conditions, accept or effect a delivery or service without reservation.
2. Our General Conditions of Purchase shall also apply exclusively to all future deliveries and services by the supplier; our General Conditions of Purchase will apply in their current version as from time to time in force and as available at www.flabeg.com.

II. Order and Conclusion of Contract

1. Unless our order contains an express commitment period and provided we did not receive an acceptance of our order by the supplier, we shall be bound by our order for the period of one week of the date of such order.
2. Changes or amendments to our order shall only be effective if confirmed in writing by us.
3. Drafts, calculations, project models or other documents provided by the supplier preparatory to the conclusion of a contract shall be free of charge and non-binding.

III. Delivery, Transfer of Risk

1. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, deliveries shall be made DDP (Incoterms 2010) to our works or to another place of delivery specified by us. The risk of loss or damage of the goods shall pass in accordance with DDP (Incoterms 2010). Partial deliveries require our prior written consent. Each delivery shall be accompanied by the delivery notes (in duplicate), indicating the order data, the precise description of the item and our item number. Delivery notes shall not include any prices and terms.
2. To the extent reasonable for the supplier, we may demand changes to the goods ordered regarding design, quality, quantity and execution. The impacts of such changes, in particular regarding higher or lower costs and the delivery date, will reasonably and amicably be settled.

IV. Delivery Dates, Delay in Delivery

1. Agreed delivery dates shall be binding and exactly observed, the Seller being bound by a strict performance obligation (obligation de résultat) in this respect. Decisive for the observance of the delivery dates is the arrival of the goods at our works or other place of delivery specified by us.
2. Our prior written consent is required for any deliveries made outside the normal business hours (working days 7.00 am - 2.30 pm). The supplier shall inform us in writing when outgoing goods leave the supplier's premises or the point of dispatch.
3. We will not accept deliveries prior to the agreed delivery date. We reserve the right to return goods at the supplier's expense and risk. If goods are not returned, we will store them up to the agreed delivery date at the supplier's expense and risk.
4. If, irrespective of the reason therefore, the supplier is unable to meet a delivery date, it shall promptly inform us of this inability stating the probable duration of the delay. In this case we may set the supplier a reasonable grace period for delivery.
5. In case of delivery default we may assert our statutory claims. We may, in particular, after fruitless expiry of a reasonable grace period (if granted in accordance with Clause IV.4), not exceeding ten days, rescind the contract, or demand due performance, and claim damages.
6. In case of delivery default, or delay or if the delivery default persists after a formal notice, we may demand from the supplier a contractual penalty equal to 0.2% of the total delivery value of the delayed delivery for each working day, but not exceeding a total of 5% of the delivery value. These penalties shall be applicable, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies under the contract and to our right to claim compensation if our losses due to the delay exceed the amount of such penalties. We may claim further damages; in this case the contractual penalty will be accounted against such additional damage claim. In case of amicable changes to delivery dates, the contractual penalty also applies to the newly agreed delivery dates. Such penalty is immediately and automatically due upon the supplier being late.

7. In case of continuing delivery default, substantial deterioration of the financial situation or insolvency of the supplier or, if there is an insolvency filing or insolvency grounds are met, we may rescind the contract and refuse acceptance of goods and payment.

V. Prices, Invoices, and Payments

1. The prices indicated in the supplier's offer or in our order are fixed prices for the delivery of the goods DDP (Incoterms 2010) to our works or to another place of delivery specified by us. The then current statutory value-added tax shall be included in the price.
2. Price increases, irrespective of the reason therefore, will only be acknowledged if these were previously accepted in writing by a duly authorised representative.
3. Invoices shall be issued in duplicate, quoting our order data and all information required under French law. Copies must be identified as such. Invoices may not be attached to any shipments of goods.
4. At our discretion, payments shall be made within 14 days of issuance of the invoice with a 3% discount or, without discount, no later than within 60 days after issuance of the invoice.
5. In case we fail to make payment on the due date, the supplier shall be entitled to interest on the outstanding amount at the lowest interest rate permitted by Article L.441-6 of the French Commercial Code. In addition the supplier may claim a fixed sum for recovery costs of EUR 40. However, if the recovery costs are higher than this fixed sum, the supplier may claim an additional compensation, subject to the demonstration with supporting documents of the additional recovery costs. Such interests for late payment correspond to liquidated damages and shall be, with the recovery costs, the only remedy due to the supplier for late payment.
6. We shall have the right to set off and retain payments to the extent permitted by law. The exercise of any retention right by the supplier is excluded to the extent that the counterclaims are not based on the same contractual relationship.

VI. Inspection and Claims for Defects

1. Notices of obvious defects shall be deemed timely if they are notified by us within one week of delivery. Obvious defects are externally visible defects such as obvious damages in transit as well as obvious deviations of identity and quantity of the goods. Other defects will be notified by us within one week of being discovered.
2. We may assert our unrestricted statutory claims for defects (including for hidden defects). In case of serial defects (defects of the same type which occur in at least 5% of the goods delivered) we may reject the entire delivery as defective and assert the statutory claims for defects in respect of the entire delivery.
3. The limitation period for claims for defects (including hidden defects) shall be five years from the date we became aware of such defect. Where the performance concerns a building or materials or parts which are customarily used in buildings, and where such materials or parts caused the defect, the limitation period shall be ten years from delivery.
4. If the supplier or a third party has given a specific contractual guarantee, such guarantee shall be granted in addition to all other guarantees expressed or implied by law and the guarantees set out in these General Conditions of Purchase. Consequently, our claims under such contractual guarantee shall remain unaffected.
5. We reserve the rights to require the supplier to replace or repair the rejected goods. Should the supplier fail to make subsequent performance within a reasonable period as set by us, we may (i) perform ourselves the required acts to replace or repair the defect at the supplier's expense, or (ii) to have such acts performed by a third party of our choice, at the supplier's expense. In case of special urgency, due to which it is not possible to inform the supplier of the defect and the pending loss, and to set the supplier an, even brief, period to perform itself the acts required to rectify the defects, we may perform ourselves the acts required to rectify the defects at the supplier's expense, or to have the same performed, by a third party of our choice, at the supplier's expense; we will inform the supplier thereof.

VII. Product Liability, Indemnity, Liability Insurance Coverage

1. In the event that claims are asserted against us for infringement of product liability laws and regulations for such defects in our products that stem from the delivery of defective goods, the supplier shall hold us harmless against such claims to the extent that the damage caused originates from the sphere of responsibility or the organisation of the supplier.
2. Within the scope of the supplier's liability as set out in Clause VII.1, the supplier shall likewise be obliged to reimburse us for any and all expenses which we incur in connection with any reasonably required recall activities or other product safety measures conducted by us. The same shall apply if one of our customers is conducting a recall. We will inform the supplier - to the extent possible and reasonable - about the nature and scope of the recall activities or product safety measures to be conducted and give the supplier an opportunity to comment. Any other statutory claims shall remain unaffected.
3. The supplier shall maintain product liability insurance coverage of Euro 2.5 million per incidence of personal injury or damage to property - blanket coverage - and present proof thereof; further claims by us shall remain unaffected.

VIII. Industrial Property Rights, Licences

1. All rights, including intellectual property rights, relating to results developed and/or obtained as part of the performance of the contract (hereinafter designated as the "Results"), regardless of the nature of such Results, such as technical information and/or solutions, results of measurement, analysis, simulations, modelling, mock-ups, specifications, databases, software (including documented source codes), drawings, models, plans, sketches, tooling and equipment as well as all of the documentation associated therewith, shall be our exclusive property as soon as they are obtained by the supplier.
2. With respect to copyright associated with Results, the supplier assigns to us on an exclusive basis, for the legal term thereof and worldwide, all exploitation rights, including reproduction, representation and adaptation rights, for any purposes and for all uses, direct or indirect.
3. The supplier shall hold us harmless against any claims that might be directed against us by a third party alleging the existence of the infringement of any rights of third parties, or any laws relating to the goods and/or services. The supplier shall indemnify us for any expenses we incur and any damages costs and expenditure of any nature we suffer due to or in connection with any such claims.
4. If use of an intellectual property right is judged as constituting an infringement, and if we so request, the supplier shall modify or replace at its own expense the infringing item, provided that such amendment or replacement shall not affect the destination, value, usage or performance of the goods and/or services.
5. The supplier may not use such Results outside the scope of the contract without our written consent. The supplier may keep them in custody until recalled. The supplier shall mark such objects in a way that our right of ownership is indicated also to third parties.

IX. Reservation of Title, Provision, Tools

1. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, the ownership of the goods shall be transferred to us upon delivery to us. Any reservation of title by the supplier is expressly excluded.
2. We reserve title in all items we provide the supplier with.
3. We reserve title in any tools made on our behalf or provided by us. The supplier shall use such tools exclusively for the manufacture of the goods ordered by us and shall mark such tools as our property. The tools shall be returned upon termination of the contract for whatever reason.
4. The supplier shall maintain at its costs insurance coverage for our tools against fire, water damage, and theft at replacement value. It shall carry out in due time and at its own costs, any necessary maintenance and inspections. Any incidents shall be promptly notified to us. If the supplier culpably fails to do so, damage claims remain unaffected.

X. Confidentiality

1. The supplier shall keep confidential all documents, information and data, including samples, drawings and calculations which we, orally or in writing, mark or designate as or presume to be 'confidential' and which are made available to it or of which it gains knowledge on the basis of the co-operation ("Confidential Information"). Confidential Information includes, in particular, any knowledge about Flabeg's and our companies' processes and business methods in technological, commercial and other respects, knowledge of data and other information relating to the financial situation and human resources management of Flabeg as well as any information on details of project handling. The supplier shall treat the Confidential Information in the same way as its own confidential information, but at least with the due care of a prudent businessman.

2. Any disclosure of Confidential Information to third parties requires our prior written consent. Disclosure of Confidential Information to employees and agents is permitted only to the extent required for the performance of the obligations incumbent on the supplier towards us. The supplier shall also impose the confidentiality undertaking it has entered into on all persons or companies entrusted by the parties with Confidential Information or performance under the contract with us..
3. The foregoing obligations shall not apply to information (i) which had been known to the supplier before it received the same from us, (ii) which the supplier developed itself, independently, without recourse to or use of our information, (iii) which the supplier lawfully obtained from third parties who, to the knowledge of the supplier, were not subject to any confidentiality undertaking vis-à-vis ourselves and such third parties, in turn, did not acquire the information through the infringement of protective provisions in favour of us, (iv) which became known to the supplier without violation of these provisions or any other regulations on the protection of our business secrets or are or were publicly known, or (v) which the supplier must disclose based on statutory, official or judicial order. In the case of (v), the supplier shall inform us prior to the disclosure, and shall restrict as far as possible the scope of such disclosure.
4. Confidential Information shall remain our property and may be neither copied nor reproduced without our prior written consent unless this is imperative for the performance of the obligations incumbent on the supplier under the contract with us..
5. This confidentiality obligation shall remain in full force and effect both during the performance of the contract and for a period of 5 years as from the delivery of the goods.

XI. Compliance, Security Information, Audit Right

1. The supplier shall comply with all applicable statutory provisions, regulatory requirements, judicial decisions and government orders. The supplier shall in a timely manner obtain all required approvals, permits and licenses, particularly those which are required for the sale and delivery of the goods.
2. The supplier guarantees that the goods comply with all statutory provisions, regulatory requirements, judicial decisions and government orders applicable to them. In particular, the supplier guarantees that the substances contained in its goods (including packing) comply with the REACH regulation (Registration, Evaluation, Authorisation and Restriction of Chemicals, EC 1907/2006, as amended - "REACH") if applicable. In case of emerging problems regarding REACH conformity, the supplier shall inform our REACH representative via email without undue delay, particularly in case that a substance contained in one of the supplier's products lacks registration, or is on the Candidate List of Substances of Very High Concern for Authorisation (SVHC).
3. The supplier further guarantees to comply with all applicable anticorruption laws, including (as applicable) the UK Bribery Act 2010 and the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA).
4. The supplier shall observe and comply with the ten principles of UN's Global Compact Initiative as available at www.unglobalcompact.org. The supplier shall also observe and comply with Flabeg France's general security regulations when delivering to, or working at our works or another place of delivery specified by us.
5. If the supplier intends to appoint subcontractors with regard to Flabeg's business, it must obtain our prior approval of each subcontractor and of the payment conditions of each subcontract. The supplier shall select such subcontractors with specific care. The supplier shall use its best efforts to ensure that such subcontractors comply with all applicable statutory provisions, regulatory requirements, judicial decisions and government orders.
6. The supplier shall keep complete records in relation to the performance of the contract and shall retain such records in accordance with applicable laws but at least for a period of six years.
7. At our request the supplier shall inform us of its valid ISO certificates and shall provide us with copies thereof.
8. In the event of an infringement of the foregoing obligations of this Clause XI, the supplier shall hold us harmless against any claims by third parties. We may rescind the contract and withhold acceptance of goods and payment in the event of a reasonable suspicion that the supplier, not only insignificantly, has infringed or is likely to infringe the foregoing obligations of this Clause XI, or if not all of the required approvals, permits or licenses have been obtained, and this is not attributable to our fault or responsibility.
9. The supplier shall permit us and our third party representatives with confidentiality obligations during normal business hours to enter the supplier's premises and examine its books and records to the extent necessary to verify compliance by the supplier with the foregoing obligations of this Clause XI. We may exercise the foregoing audit right (i) promptly as soon as we reasonably suspect that the supplier has infringed or is likely to infringe the foregoing obligations of this Clause XI, or (ii) otherwise, by giving six weeks' prior notice of such exercise of the audit right. Business and trade secrets are excluded from audit; paragraphs containing business and trade secrets may therefore be redacted before documents are made available.

XII. Place of Jurisdiction, Governing Law

1. The courts of Paris have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with a Contract (a "Dispute"). Such exclusive jurisdiction is for our benefit only. As a result, we shall not be prevented from taking proceedings relating to a Dispute in any other courts with jurisdiction. To the extent allowed by law, we may take concurrent proceedings in any number of jurisdictions.
2. The laws of France shall apply. The application of the provisions on Contracts for the International Sales of Goods (CISG - Vienna UN Convention) shall be expressly excluded.

XIII. Final Provisions

1. Without our prior written consent, the supplier shall not, in part or in whole, assign its rights and obligations. We may assign our rights and obligations under the contract, in particular to any companies which directly or indirectly controls us, is controlled by us or is under common control with us within the meaning of Article L.233-3 of the French Commercial Code or to a third party in the event of the transfer, in whole or in part, of our assets or business.
2. Should any of the provisions of our General Conditions of Purchase be invalid, the validity of the remaining provisions remains unaffected thereby.
3. In case of a conflict between the French and the English version of these General Conditions of Purchase, the English version prevails.
